Kiss and Run

Jenna Andrews

Aye, Oh
Ayeeee, OhhhhhWake up in the morning, youre still here
I brought you home for one thing, you weren't supposed to love me
Theres something in the air we need to clear
Expected to be gone now, I need some time alone nowI thought we'd just have sex, you leave and smoke my cigarette
And play things cool cause I think youre cool
Seems you got your own intentions, maybe I forgot to mention
Theres no use cause being in love takes twoI want you to kiss me
I want you to touch me
I didn't want you to love me
Cause it's more fun to hit you with my kiss and run
Oh darling
I want you to touch me
I didn't want you to love me
Cause it's more fun to hit you with my kiss and runAs your hands unstrap my bra
Just dim the lights, dont turn them off
Dont need no clothes, just take them off, ooh baby, oooh
I wont let you in, get through my arm
Cant let you get inside my heartI thought we'd just have sex, you leave and smoke my cigarette
And play things cool cause I think youre cool
Seems you got your own intentions, maybe I forgot to mention
Theres no use cause being in love takes twoI want you to kiss me
I want you to touch me
I didn't want you to love me
Cause it's more fun to hit you with my kiss and run
Oh darling
I want you to touch me
I didn't want you to love me
Cause it's more fun to hit you with my kiss and runKiss and run
Kiss and run
Kiss and runKiss and run
Kiss and run
Kiss and runI thought we'd just have sex, you leave and smoke my cigarette
And play things cool cause I think youre cool
Seems you got your own intentions, maybe I forgot to mention
Theres no use cause being in love takes twoI want you to kiss me
I want you to touch me
Didn't want you to love me

Cause it's more fun to hit you with my kiss and run
Oh darling
