Not A Freak

Brie Larson

Well I've known ya' like it's been forever
You don't see me as your girlfriend, whatever
I've been your supporter, been your friend
I'm not obsessive, well, maybe I am
I keep on writing your name over and over again
I don't know what to say, but I like you in a different way
Sayin' this was really tough
But bein' friends ain't good enough
Keep your picture by my bed
Your full name stuck in my head
And no, I'm not a freak
It's just around you, my knees get weak
And no, I'm not a freak
It's just around you, I can't be me
You think you know me, baby, inside and out
I've got a secret, can you figure it out
Wanna' be more than your partner-in-crime
Can't get you outta' my troubled mind
I keep on seein' your smile over and over again
I don't know what to say, but I like you in a different way
Sayin' this was really tough
But bein' friends ain't good enough
Keep your picture by my bed
Your full name stuck in my head
And no, I'm not a freak
It's just around you, my knees get weak

And no, I'm not a freak
It's just around you, I can't be me
I love strange things about ya'
Like the way you comb your hair
Your favorite pair of jeans
You know, the ones with the tear
I love how you're amused by my ever-changin' news
But most of all I love just bein' near you
I don't know what to say, but I like you in a different way
Sayin' this was really tough
But bein' friends ain't good enough
Keep your picture by my bed

Your full name stuck in my head
And no, I'm not a freak
It's just around you, my knees get weak
I don't know what to say, but I like you in a different way
Sayin' this was really tough
But bein' friend ain't good enough
Keep your picture by my bed
Your full name stuck in my head
And no, I'm not a freak
It's just around you, my knees get weak
And no, I'm not a freak
It's just around you, I can't be me
Well I've known ya' like it's been forever
You don't see me as your girlfriend, whatever
