

Morals

Strangers With Candy

These arms they never reach
Far enough
These shoulders never strike wide enough
These teeth they never cut
Deep enough in
My skin
To be someone like you
Unable to face basal demands
To be someone like you
Unable to carry
Life's weightBroken promise
Where's your morals
In this cursed realm
Where hides JesusIf I could Leave my body then I would
Bleed into a lake
Dashing away
DisappearWhere's your morals
Where's your morals
Where's your morals
Where's your morals
