

No Lovin'

Radical Something

I'm so sorry, but I'm still on the road
Cancel my flight, and I'm not coming home
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight
Yo, just got one, we're gonna be apart
Much more than the both of us ?
Now all I see is ? with the middle warm feeling
Nowhere me
It's got me reaching for my iPhone
Knowing I'm about to hear another dial tone
Yeah and it's all my fault
I keep ripping us apart, so I'm pouring out my heart like
I'm so sorry, but I'm still on the road
Cancel my flight, and I'm not coming home
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight
I go to war just to see your face
I move mountains if it mean I could get to your place
These tickets back home are more expensive

Now I'm more caught up in my consequences
You say I'm missing plans, I'm missing dinner
Well I'm missing every single thing about you
Is all to have fun, so far from your familiar touch
Tonight I need love but I ran all out of luck
I'm so sorry, but I'm still on the road
Cancel my flight, and I'm not coming home
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight
I wanna kiss you girl ? waiting for
I miss you girl so I wrote this song
You know that I wish you were here
It's been too long for ? alone
The world is ? are getting old
And I just wanna cuddle you
I'm so sorry, but I'm still on the road
Cancel my flight, and I'm not coming home, I'm not coming home
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight
No lovin' tonight, lovin tonight, no lovin tonight, loving tonight.
