

Tumbleweed

Bonsai Nation

It's time to hate another early morning under this love
But I see you've saved a seat here for me under the sun
And I know you've heard the story
It's you who's making this so bad for me, yeah

But I figure out of sight could put her out of mind
But I think of her any time I try and close my eyes

Now I'm pretty sure I've said I'm sorry, as if it were enough
And now I grieve the morning
Utterly impressed by what used to bore me, yeah

And I figure out of sight could put her out of mind
But I think of her any time I try and close my eyes

Can you feel the breeze
Whispering through me
Tumbleweed, tumbleweed
Can you feel me breathe?

Can you feel the breeze
Whispering through me
Tumbleweed, tumbleweed
Can you feel me breathe?

And I figure out of sight could put her out of mind
And I think of her any time I try and close my eyes
