I love piano,
As if I were a string.
I love Seattle,
As if I were the rain.
Just like the melodies of Stevie Wonder
Go with the beat of my heart.
Just like the lightning goes with the thunder
Signed, sealed, delivered, I'm yours.
Because there's
Nothing that I love more than you
Nothing that I love more.
There's nothing that I adore like you
Nothing that I love more

You're like Picasso
The masterpiece of my life
'Cause you're the one that
Brings the color into my eyes.
Because there's
Nothing that I love more than you
Nothing that I love more
There's nothing that I adore like you
There's nothing that I love more

Not even silver
Not even gold
Not even diamonds
Or riches untold
You are my wealth
With you I can just be myself
You're so good for my health

There's nothing that I love more than you
There's nothing that I love more
There's nothing that I adore like you
There's nothing that I love more
There's nothing that I love more than you
There's nothing that I love more
There's nothing that I adore like you

There's nothing that I love more
