

Death

Caldera

Bury yourself, deep inside me you'll be quite safe, but only with me Don't worry now I'll be everything that you need. All you'll need is your heart open for me. So let me in and promise. I swear. I'll always be there, forever I swear, so don't waste your tears, I am everything you need me to be, so lean upon me and I'll be your strength, so let go, and fly and be free, because of me is that you and me we're all I need I'm everything you want me to be. Your sweet touch, your candy lips, your sweet ass tits.
