

She's So Fine

rumHoney

Saved by the evening, I was out on the town
Rum bar heaving, and the sun going down

Lady looks so fine
Slips her hand in mine
This new heart of mine
See her shine

She rattled her tail, and beckoned me in.
Well i'm a hot blooded male, and its a thrill to sin.

Lady looks so fine
Dancing down my line
This new heart of mine
See me shine

Lady she looks so fine
Lady she looks so fine

I dont miss my home my love, and I dont feel a thing
I dont miss my home at all, Honey hear me sing
The girl i'm with has all the moves, but she doesn't dance she slips
I can feel her skipping, to the rhythm of my hips.

The sand is Quick, and I can't get out the air is thick, with scream and shout

Lady looked so fine
Now she's lost her shine
This old heart of mine
Can read her mind

But she won't ever let me be, and the light is far away now i'm sure she's wrong for me, how can I ever stay
That's what I say

Lady looked so fine
With her hand in mine
I tried to save her shrine

But not in time

I dont miss my home my love, and I dont feel a thing
I dont miss my home at all, Honey hear me sing
The girl i'm with has all the moves, but she doesn't dance she slips
I can feel her skipping, to the rhythm of my hips.
