

Sadder Days

Robert Cray

Talked yesterday about us,
baby we could save, what we lost.
Didn't have to say we were done.
Have my sadder days just begun? I've had better days than this one.
You just walked away, I'm all alone.
Are there other ways? Show me one.
Till my sadder days are all gone.
Till my sadder days are all gone. Why must they be the most lonesome,
longest days of the week?
Now, now I know there won't be a tomorrow,
without you here. Why must they be the most lonesome,
longest days of the week?
Now, now I know there won't be a tomorrow,
without you here.
