

Suddenly

O-town

She said, "It wasn't my fault"
She said, "We gave it our all"
As she walked away
I never saw a girl's eyes so blue
No, and tell me is there something I can do?
To leave another message on the telephone
And you're parked outside with your headlights on
Suddenly, I'm standing at your door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly, he's all alone with you
He's looking in your eyes like I wanted to
I knock four times and pretend you're not at home
Suddenly, I'm all alone
Suddenly, I'm all alone, yeah
She said, "It wasn't the same"
She said, "Our life's been so plain"
Then she walked away
I wanna make things brand new
Tell me is there something I can do? Whoa
To leave another message on the telephone
And you're parked outside with your headlights on
Suddenly, I'm standing at your door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly, he's all alone with you
He's looking in your eyes like I wanted to
I knock four times and pretend you're not at home
Suddenly, I'm all alone
Suddenly, I'm all alone
Suddenly, I'm all alone
Suddenly, I'm all alone
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah
Suddenly, you're standing at my door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly, I'm all alone with her
She's everything that I wish you were
You knock four times and pretend I'm not at home

Suddenly, you're standing at my door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly, I'm all alone with her
She's everything that I wish you were
You knock four times and pretend I'm not at home
Suddenly, you're standing at my door
And the steps don't feel like they did before
The radio's playing loud but it's not our song
Suddenly, I'm all alone with her
She's everything that I wish you were
You knock four times and pretend I'm not at home
