

Step Up

Irie Love

Yeah yeah yeah

Irie Love

Now we been dating for about 5 years
We shared good times though we both had fears
Don't really know where I stand or belong
You know what to say just to string me along

Another day, another week,
Another month turns to another year
I'm holding on but it's clear
That this love ain't going nowhere

You got to show me there's a future in this (boy u gotta show me)
You got to show me something,
Cause I'm about ready to quit

I need you to step up and show me a plan
I don't need a boy
I need a man

I need you to step up, to prove that you care
Come and put a ring upon my hand
I need you to step up
I need you to step up, step up
I need you to step up, step up
I need you to step up, step up

You got to show me there's a future in this
You got to show me something
(it's now or never)

You got to show me there's a future in this
(do you want me)

You got to show me something
(I need to know right now)

Cause I ain't gonna be here sittig around waiting

I have come to the end of my patience
I ain't gonna be your fool,
Loving you without a commitment
I don't wanna be that fool
With no hope of a happy ending

And I'll be good without you,
Cause half your heart just won't do
Now I know my value,
But it doesn't seem that you do!
