

Something 2013 (feat. Taylor Jones) [Radio Edit]

Lasgo

I don't wanna say i'm sorry
Cause I know there's nothing wrong
Don't be afraid there's no need to worry
Cause my feelings for you are still strong Hold me in your arms
And never let me go
Hold me in your arms
Cause I need you so I can see it in your eyes
There is something
Something you wanna tell me
I see it in your eyes
There is something
That you hide from me
Is there a reason why?
There is something
Something you wanna tell me
I see it in your eyes
There is something
That you hide from me I don't wanna say I'm sorry
Cuz I know there's nothing wrong
Don't be afraid
There's no need to worry
Cuz my feelings for you are still strong Hold me in your arms
Hold me in your arms
And never let me go
Hold me in your arms
Cause I need you so I can see it in your eyes
There is something
Something you wanna tell me
I see it in your eyes
There is something
That you hide from me
Is there a reason why?
There is something
Something you wanna tell me
I see it in your eyes
There is something
That you hide from me
