Rill Rill

Sleigh Bells

Have a heart, have a heart, have a heart
Sixteen six six six and I know the part
You are the river flow
And we can never know
We're just a weatherman
You make the wind blow
Keep thinking about every straight face yes
Wonder what your boyfriend thinks about your basses
What about them
I'm all about them
Six such straight As
Cut em in the bathroom
So this is it then?
You're here to win friend
Click click saddle up see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend?
Pick up the phone then
Rill rill call them up
Tell them about the new trends
So this is it then?
You're here to win friend
Click click saddle up see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend?
Pick up the phone then
Rill rill call them up
Tell them about the new trends
Have a heart, have a heart, have a heart
Sixteen six six six a I fell apart
You form a tarot pack
And I'm aware of that
But we could fist fight drunk like the parent trap
Keep thinking about every straight face yes
Wonder what your boyfriend thinks about your basses
We never blink see
And you can see me
We fell asleep in the middle of the fury
So this is it then?
You're here to win friend

Click click saddle up see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend?
Pick up the phone then
Rill rill call them up
Tell them about the new trends
So this is it then?
You're here to win friend
Click click saddle up see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend?
Pick up the phone then
Rill rill call them up
Tell them about the new trends
Have a heart, have a heart, have a heart
Sixteen six six six and I know the part
You are the river flow
And we can never know
You're just a weatherman
We make the wind blow
Keep thinking about every straight face yes
Wonder what your boyfriend thinks about your basses
What about them
I'm all about them
Six such straight As
So this is it then?
You're here to win friend
Click click saddle up see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend?
Pick up the phone then
Rill rill call them up
Tell them about the new trends
So this is it then?
You're here to win friend
Click click saddle up see you on the moon then
You're all alone friend?
Pick up the phone then
Rill rill call them up
Tell them about the new trends
