Thank You

Matt Cab

Oh
Don't know if I told you before
How grateful I am
Stood by my side
Since day one
You told me I can
Be the person I've always wanted to be
All the times I was lost, yeah you helped me to see
You never gave up
And when I needed you,
You were always thereI wanna say
Thank you, thank you, thank you
For believing in me
I wanna say
Thank you, thank you, thank you
I wanna say thank youI've had my share of tough times
And troublesome days
You gave me strength
When I was weak
You made it okay
You're the sunshine that brightens the darkest of days
You're the light in my life, take the clouds all awayYou'll never give up
When I'm in need of you
You're always thereI wanna say
Thank you, thank you, thank you
For believing in me
I wanna say
Thank you, thank you, thank you
I wanna say thank youI thank the Lord
For sending me an angel
'Cause when I'm down
You bring me back to life
Like a lighthouse,
You show me the way
And suddenly, I'm safe
There's only two words left to sayI wanna say
Thank you, thank you, thank you
For believing in me
I wanna say

Thank you, thank you, thank you
I wanna say thank youThank you
Oh nah nah nah
Thank you
