Rowing Song

Patty Griffin

As I row, row, row going so slow, slow, slow
Just down below me is the old sea
Just down below me is the old sea
Nobody knows, knows, knows
So many things, things, so, so out of range
Sometimes so strange, sometimes so sweet
Sometimes so lonely
The further I go
More letters from home never arrive
And I'm alone all of the way
All of the way alone and alive
You just have to go, go, go
Where I don't know, know, know
This is the thing, somebody said
Somebody told me a long time ago
The further I go
More letters from home never arrive
And I'm alone all of the way
All of the way alone and alive
As I row, row, row going so slow, slow, slow
Just down below me is the old sea
Just down below me is the old sea
As I row, row, row going so slow, slow, slow
Just down below me is the old sea
Just down below me is the old sea
As I row, row, row going so slow, slow, slow
Just down below me is the old sea
Just down below me is the old sea
