

Feelings

Maroon 5

You and me and all that wild
Losing my collar, damn it's fly
Every guy that passes by
Look at her, look at her oh
And you say that it's not right
But where does he think you are tonight
Does he know you're nasty inside
Look at her, look at her oh If you want me take me home and let me use you
I know he doesn't satisfy you like I do
And does she know that there's nobody quite like you
So let me tell you all the things he never told you I got these feelings for you
And I can't help myself no more
Can't fight these feelings for you
No I can't help myself no more
I, I, I You and me let's go all night
Going so high, we fuck the sky
Come with me now, fuck that guy
Look at her, look at her oh
Now you flash that sexy smile
And tell me I gotta wait a while
And it makes me lose my mind
Look at her, look at her oh If you want me take me home and let me use you
I know he doesn't satisfy you like I do
And does he know that there's nobody quite like you
So let me tell you all the things he never told you
Yeah I got these feelings for you
And I can't help myself no more
Can't fight these feelings for you
No I can't help myself no more
I, I, I
Can't help myself no more
I, I, I No I can't wait much longer
It needs to happen now
'Cause I can't spend the rest of my life chasing you around
I want to get much closer
You need to tell me how Baby, how, how
Because I got these feelings for you
And I can't help myself no more

Can't fight these feelings for you
No I can't help myself no more I got these feelings for you
I got this feeling for you, got this feeling for you
Can't fight these feelings for you
No I can't help myself no more
I, I, I
