

I'm Not Lisa

Tanya Tucker

I'm not Lisa, my name is Tanya
Lisa left you year's ago
My eyes are not blue
But mine won't leave you
Til the sun light has touched your face
She was your morning light
Her smile told of no night
Your love for her grew
With each risin' sun
And then one winter day
His hand lead her's away
She left you here
Drownin' in your tears here

Where you stayed for years, crying Lisa
Lisa
I'm not Lisa
My name is Tanya
My eyes are not blue
But mine won't leave you
Til the sun light
Shines through your face
I'm not Lisa, my name is Tanya
