

Heyo

Bell, Book & Candle

Coming home there's now here now

Coming home there's now here now

Not here not

And you ask me, how I feel,

He's packed his bags,

Walked out on me.

You probably wanna know what now,

Everything's left up to me.

Coming home there's now here now

Coming home there's now here now

Not here not

I'm lost in thought about our time,

Can't get your name out of my brain

And still your absence present here,

Why must this happen to me

Coming home there's now here now

Coming home there's now here now

Not here not

Let's open doors, a brandnew start

Abandon tears wipe clear the state

Got all my life ahead of me

A different girl starts living
