Voodoo Woman

Simon Stokes

You were the hunter and the queen of the night and you were looking for an easy prey i was a loner who got caught in your sight i was yours and didn't get no saypre-chorus one shot of your potion now your blood is in my veins, yeah it burns like poison what the devil have you donechorus
voodoo woman
you got me in the mood for some lovin' voodoo woman, i swear you put a spell on me voodoo womani can't believe the things you're making me do now i'm addicted to you, oh no hey sister sin your love is needles and pins i'm like a puppet on strings that's how you're running the show
