Wings of Destiny

Rhapsody

Day has gone but I'm still here with you my sweet rose my green hills beloved sea, lakes and sky beloved mother earthSilent land erase my thoughts I would lose myself in you, whole in you caress me and my soul while I close my eyesOn wings of destiny through virgin skies to far horizons I will flyDear peaceful land, dear mother earth caress my soul while I close my eyesOn wings of destiny
through virgin skies
to far horizons I will flyOn wings of destiny
through virgin skies
to far horizons I will fly
