Know

Nick Drake

I will never feed off
The evergreen luster of your heart
All because we all live
In the valley of the walls
When we speak
We can peak from the windows
Of their mouths to see the land
The women chant as they fly up to the sun
You never think you know, why
Know, you never think you know, why
Know, ever think you know, why
Know, know, know
Books all say different things
While people flap their yellow wings
Trying to soar by being a whore of life
And almost everything
The sheep that ran off from the herd
May be dead but now's a bird
Able to fly able to die

Able to break your cursed earth
You never think you know, why
Know, you never think you know, why
Know, ever think you know why
Know
On the other side, the other side, other side
Do you ever try to fly, do you ever try to fly?
Have you ever wanted to die
You ever want to die?
Don't ever try to fly, don't ever try to fly
Don't ever try to fly
Unless you leave your body on the other side
Never try to die, you ever try to die.
Know, you never think you know, why
Know, you never think you know, why
Know, you never think you know, why
Know, ever think you know, why
Know
