

Thread of Light

Pale Saints

Hey, Percy
The beauty hidden in the pain
I smile and I bleed
Body rainBetween the scenes
You should hold someone
Every piece is time
You've undonePretty boy
Everything lost and still a sound
Of mother's arms and soul
Can be foundBetween the scenes
You should hold someone
Every piece is time
You've undoneBetween the scenes
You should hold someone
Every piece is time
You've undoneEvery piece is time
You've undone
