Vignettes

Paper Tigers

So sick and tired,
Of walking on uneven ground and,
This dust on my feet just wont come clean youre too tightly wound.
But I can see right through you,
Jealousy seems to suit you,
Discount the danger start calling it love-
You say youve had enough, but its never enough...Can we get out?
Because were falling apart,
Help me get far and away from
All these things we once loved.
Dont say a word,
No Baby - dont say a word
Well strive to make things right,
Its all we know.I'm sick and tired
When this always comes to soon,
And though things could be better,
Im under the weather,
But over the moon.
And I can see right through you (Yeah its all we know)
When jealousy seems to suit you
Discount the dangers of falling in love-
You say youve had enough, but its never enough...Weve tried and weve tried to frame these vignettes on life.
