

I Wanna Break Up With You

Danko Jones

I wanna break up with you
Right now
You're driving me crazy
And I want out
Want out
You steal all my friends
And talk too much
Too much
I know your nagging
Will never stop
Shut up
You've really let yourself go
We don't have sex no more
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
All we do is fight but never make up
Make up
You brag a lot and then bitch me out
Bitch
You take pleasure in putting me down
Get out
But you can't take what you deserve
Fuck this
There's so much that you lack that
I find you unattractive
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
It's the way she moves
It's the way she talks
The way she eats her food
The way she just walks, just her
When she's sleeping
She keeps me up with her snoring

Everyday spent with her

Is so fucking boring
I lost interest the day that you lied
I played it off like all was fine
Been eating me up inside
Do you know that I hate you?
I figured you'd probably leave me
Two months has turned into nine
It's two years later
And I'm sick and tired
I wouldn't want to
Even if somebody paid me
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
I, I wanna break up
I wanna break up with you
Everybody break up
Everybody break up
Break up, break up
Everybody break up
Everybody break up
Everybody break up
Break up, break up
Everybody break up
Everybody break up
Everybody break up
Break up, break up
Everybody break up
