

KILL4ME

Marilyn Manson

Let's grab a gold switch blade
And make us a blood pact, babe
To love and to fuck and to only see ourselves
And remember this Your hotel hall won't be so vacant
And I can tell that you ain't faking
Because I take death threats
Like the best of them Would you kill, kill, kill 4 me?
I love you enough to ask you again
Would you kill, kill, kill 4 me?
You won't be kissing me unless you kill for me
Kill, kill, kill 4 me
Bloody noses are just like roses
But what happens when we are betrayed?
Won't you drag him to the shed
And unload six rounds in their fucking face?
This is a sacrifice Your hotel hall won't be so vacant
And I can tell that you ain't faking
Because I take death threats
Like the best of them Would you kill, kill, kill 4 me?
I love you enough to ask you again
Would you kill, kill, kill 4 me?
You won't be kissing me unless you kill 4 me Sideways for attention, longways for results
Who are you going to cross?
Sideways for attention, longways for results
Who are you going to cross?
Sideways for attention, longways for results
Who are you going to cross?
Would you kill, kill, kill 4 me?
I love you enough to ask you again
Would you kill, kill, kill 4 me?
I love you enough to ask you again
Would you kill, kill, kill 4 me?
You won't be kissing me unless you kill 4 me
Kill, kill, kill 4 me
Kill, kill, kill 4 me Sideways for attention, longways for results
Who are you going to cross?
