Split Me Wide Open

The Bravery

Split me wide open and look right inside
There's so many things that I tried to hide
Oh you see right through me
You always see right through me

Split me wide open, and cut me in two
There's nothing that I could ever hide from you
Oh you always knew me, you're the only one who knew me

Is nothing sacred, is nothing saved?
Your gentle eyes like a razor blade
They cut me open, you look right through
I give it all to you

Split me wide open, and cut it at all
My hands on your body like a blind man's on the wall
Oh you always show me, you're the only one who shows me

I am hang on a tree
For these drooling faces that can look up and see
But you always knew me, you're the only one who knew me

Is nothing sacred, is nothing saved?
Your gentle eyes like a razor blade
They cut me open and look right through
I give it all to you

Split me wide open
Split me wide open

Is nothing sacred, is nothing saved?
Your gentle eyes like a razor blade
They cut me open, you look right through
I give it all to you

Split me wide open
Split me wide open

Oh you always knew me, you're the only one who knew me

Split me wide open
Split me wide open

Oh you see right through me, you always see right through me
