Sevendust

I feel it Stop, drop, roll, get up, take a crack at me
You look at me, you look at me
Like every other motherfucker that I've seen today
You wanna hurt me like I've never been hurt, right now Feel it now, stop
Come again now
Feel it right now Show me just one thing
To help me make the day stop moving slowly
Show me the only thing
That'll make you stop controlling then you'll see how Now give up every second for the one shot left in me
You look at me and now you see
How I took the real from you, fucker 'cuz you had so much to say
You wanted me, you got me right here, right now Feel it now, stop, drop again now
See it right now, I'm coming in
Why can't you just Show me just one thing
To help me make the day stop moving slowly
Show me the only thing
That'll make you stop controlling Why can't I just start over?
It's like I'm rolling over
Don't wanna be the one to bleed, not me
It's like I'm mourning over the death of me, no It's like I'm rolling over
Not me, not me, not me, not me Show me just one thing
To help me make the day stop moving slowly
Show me the only thing
That'll make you stop controlling
