

Raise The Devil

Raise Hell

I've walked this earth with hate and rage in my heart
For many years and many moreI can not resist to hate these living creatures
I must end their so-called livesI spit out this hatred, this hatred I've carried too long,
 Too long so they could spread their seed
 Go through the roots, the roots of goodness
 Make the flower perish
 Reaping the fields with our seed
 Your flowers will never appear
 Only truth will remain, let hatred reign
 It's for the devil to choose, let hell break loose
 Ingenious I am, demolished you are
Raise the goddamned devil!I looked in the past of a child, a child with rage in his heart
 Once in his lifetime as the devil's child he opened his eyes so black
Blacker than night, darker and darker by timeReleasing my hatred inside!Ingenious I am, demolished you are
 Raise the goddamned devil!
 It's for the devil to choose, let hell break loose
 Only truth will remain, let hatred reign
 It's for the devil to choose, let hell break loose
 Ingenious I am, demolished you are
 Raise the goddamned devil!
