

Only In America

Hoodoo Gurus

A preacher's thumping his bible and praying on the suicidal he'll lead us up to salvation for some small remuneration he'll make you clean just touch your screen and you'll own anything you've even dreamed

Chorus:

can you feel the pulse of america there is nowhere else like america see it for your self in america you could only be in america only in america x4 a young man crosses the boarder he searching for the new world order he ended up in a sweat shop prosperity was going to be his next stop 12 hour days a minimum wage would make him nothing but a new world slave

can you feel the paulse of america
only in america x8bridgeChroonly in america x20
