

Better Than I Should

Skinny Molly

I took a pen of yours to write you a letter
Sat down and I wrote this song instead
Lately girl Ive been learning to feel better...yeah..
Let that water run through the river bed

I ain't gonna cry?I've gotten over that
Was a time I never thought I would
Im getting by....Ive left the bad for good
These days I feel better than I should..

I thought I knew the meaning of a heartache..
Then you laid the real deal down on me..
Watching heart to heart turn heart to heartbreak..
Got the rest of what was left of me..

I ain't gonna cry?I've gotten over that
Was a time I never thought I would
Im getting by....Ive left the bad for good
These days I feel better than I should..

Ive run into the light out of the darkness
Left my demons there to kick n cuss
Might of wound up lonely, cold and heartless
Nice to know there's more to me than us..

I ain't gonna cry?I've gotten over that
Was a time I never thought I would
And I'm getting by....Ive left the bad for good
These days I feel better than I should..
Yeah it Feels good feeling better than I should.
