We've Only Just Begun

Run Kid Run

You'll have your ups and downs
Don't let them push you out
'Cause time is all you've got nowGo make the best of everything you want to be
With ambition pushing forward
Your dreams upon your shouldersThough impossible it seems
It's time to just believe
From here on out you're just getting older
Pick up yourself, you keep getting closerLet's just get it started tonight
All you've ever wanted it's in your eyes
Just let it take you where you want to go
Just let it tell you what you want to knowYou've got your destination
Progress has now been made and you
Will see the way you've wanted it to beWe've only just begun
There's gold that lies in us
Your hesitation's held you long enoughThough impossible it seems
It's time to just believe
From here on out you're just getting older
Pick up yourself, you keep getting closerLet's just get it started tonight
All you've ever wanted it's in your eyes
Just let it take you where you want to go
Just let it tell you what you want to knowLet's just get it started tonight
All you've ever wanted it's in your eyes
Just let it take you where you want to go
Just let it tell you what you want to know
Just let it take you where you want to goThe future holds a brighter day for you
You may ask yourself tonight
Is it out of reach, out of reach?
Is it out of reach? Is it out of reach
Out of reach, or am I? Or am I?Let's just get it startedLet's just get it started tonight
All you've ever wanted it's in your eyes
Just let it take you where you want to go
Just let it tell you what you want to knowLet's just get this started
(Where you are tonight)
All you've ever wanted
(It's in your eyes)Just let it take you where you want to go
Just let it tell you what you want to know
Just let it take you where you want to go
