I remember when we first met it was freshman summer i cant forget and daydreams of you and i wrote your name on my folder a 1000 timesso why cant i let you go? when i know i should well im not sure i ever couldand how will we go on again? it doesnt matter cause you left me ticks the time away again doesnt matter cause you gonewell i remember when we first met and now im left to weather if youll be gone forever but daydreams of you and i theres a place i dont need to try.
