Everythings Gonna Be All Right

Chubby Checker

The roof leaks, the floor squeaks
The clock won't tick anymore
The knob fell offa the door
Since you're gone
Everything's wrong, Everything's wrong
The picture you gave me
Fell down and came all apart
It's broken just like my heart
Since you're gone
Everything's wrong, Everything's wrong
The dreams I used to dream
I thought would never end
Turn into nightmares now
Till you're in my arms again
The phone bell won't ring now
It just hangs there on the wall
Like me it waits for your call

Since you're gone
Everything's wrong, Everything's wrong
Hey Yeah Yeah
(Instrumental Break)
There's just two nightmares now
Till your in my arms again
The phone bell won't ring now
It just hangs there on the wall
Like me it waits for your call
Since you're gone
Everything's wrong, Everything's wrong
Oh Oh Baby
I sit here and wait for your call
Oooo Oooo Oooo ..... fade
