Better Half

Jawbreaker

I see him comingWe hold our rock we are readyThe thing we'll do to himThey aren't fit for anyoneHey this is serious businessI'm gonna hate myselfStill I just can't wait to beginThe monster inside me
Can't be talked out of anythingHe's got an appetiteOh no he's hungry nowI just gotta restrain him
The seam inside me growsKiss your better half goodbyeAll those things you trusted in
The man that you pride yourself onAll the control you think you hold
Anything that can go wrongWill find itself come and gone
His body lies brokenHey some harsh words were spokenI feel terribleIt just got away
Had to make him payFor the hole in my heart
It's been my fault from the startIf you think it all makes senseCan you tell the difference
Anything that can go wrong
Between a quarter and twenty five centsWill find itself come and gone
