Whatever Way the Wind Blows

Kelly Willis

Well from now on I'm gonna do what's right
Been thinking this over for many long nights
And on this decision I'm gonna follow throughWhatever way the wind blows
I'll be around, I'll be around for youNow the whole round world has gone thoroughly mad
It's so hard trusting in anything said
And a sense of doubt is the only thing that's trueWhatever way the wind blows
I'll be around, I'll be around for you, yeahWhatever winds of change go tearin' across this world
I'm always gonna be beside you I'm your girlHey, from now on I'm gonna do what's right
Been thinking this over for many long nights
Ever since you told me that you really loved me tooWhatever way the wind blows
I'll be around, I'll be around for you, yeahWhenever winds of change go tearin' cross this world
I'm always gonna be beside you, I'm your girlHey, the whole round world has gone thoroughly mad
It's so hard trusting in anything said
And a sense of doubt is the only thing that's trueWhatever way the wind blows
I'll be around, I'll be around for youI said, "Whatever way the wind blows
I'll be around, I'll be around for you"
