

In Our Eyes

Niki & the Dove

Sometimes I grow so cold
My breath is an arctic wind
I am a mountain out of reach
Oh why? But sometimes I'm the night
I get tangled in the dark
Ooh ooh, ooh ooh but when we dance
Ooh ooh but when you take my hand
Oh when you take my hand
If I belong to somewhere, it's to your arms, Kery
The love I hold is older than the sky we lay under
The reason why is hidden in our eyes
If I lose track of it, help me find my way back
When I was younger, sometimes when I look back
I see that aching heart, but I was fly, I was so tall
I wouldn't stop til I broke your heart
Ooh ooh I'm just like you
But you're a song I wanna sing all night long
If I belong to somewhere, it's to your arms, Kery
The love I hold is older than the sky we lay under
The reason why is hidden in our eyes
If I lose track of it, help me find my back
And you're the evening star
You want summer and I'm a Winterheart
I'm the night now but I will shelter you
Oh the wind dies, the thunder of the storm is coming
(The storm is coming, the storm is coming)
Oh
If I belong to somewhere, it's to your arms, Kery (Kery oh)
The love I hold is older than the sky we (lay under)
Is older than the sky we lay under (eyes)
If I lose track of it, help me find my way back
