

Love Ain't Easy

Steelheart

Love ain't easy, love ain't easy
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy for me
Oh baby, baby, you're driving me crazy
I can't take no more
Running around, breakin' me down
My head's down on the floor
Woke up this morning, my gun in your hand
The Devil dancing in your eyes
You brush wet lace 'cross my face
Love me till my well ran dry
You say you need me, oh then you bleed me
Oh, what's a poor boy to do?
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy for me
Love, no, [Incomprehensible]
Oh honey, honey, you steal my money

Take it to the candy store
You wine and dine them then you blind them
When you're walking out the door
Wasted tonight, with a knife in my heart
I'll never make it out alive
You slide back in my world again
And cry me a river of lies
Oh please, have mercy
She said, "Hold me in your arms"
What's a poor boy to do?
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy for me, love
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy for me
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy
Love ain't easy, love ain't easy for me
