Refusing Temptation

Rhett Miller

Why am I refusing temptation when it's all around me?
It would be so easy to say yes
But I never say yes, I just float here like ice
Why do I continue to phone you when it's so apparent?
Those drinks that your pouring won't make you forget
That you and I met once or twice
In my dream I will remember you loving me
Oh, but in real life this is not over
Why do I persist and resist in what is really happening
You and I could be happy sleeping right here
But you won't be here, you are telling me twice
In my dream I will remember you loving me
Oh, but in real life this is not over
In my dream I will remember you loving me
Oh, but in real life this is not over
Why am I refusing temptation when it's all around me?
It would be so easy to say yes
But I never say yes, I just float here like ice
In my dream I will remember you loving me
Oh, but in real life this is not over
In my dream I will remember you loving me
Oh, but in real life this is not over
In my dream I will remember you loving me
Oh, but in real life this is not over
Why am I refusing temptation?

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/