Shudder

Finger Eleven

So sad to everyone
Did not occur to you
Wake up an empty shell
Someone to crawl intoDead days refuse to dream
The blanket still asleep
Concealing every flaw
Till you uncover meCould it be that I'm fading far away straight out of itNo truth I can confirm
No truth that I can sense
Passing time I can't recall
The truth it surfacesOpen eyes open heart
Open up and fall apartI'll be that burden you bear
