Forever (Acoustic Version)

Threshold

I woke to find you by my side
You gave your heart to keep it alive
The love that you bring me is shining within meJust another dream
Nothing ever seems to look the same anymore
And you're not coming home because it's
Just another dream
And I could stay alone foreverYou play your game like nobody loses
You know the way so why don't you use it
I need you beside me but you keep on hidingJust another dream
Nothing ever seems to look the same anymore
And you're not coming home because it's
Just another dream
And I could stay alone forever
ForeverLong nights and lonely days
I'll burn the candle alwaysJust another dream
Nothing ever seems to look the same anymore
You're not coming home because it's
Just another dream
And I could stay alone forever
