

Woulda, Shoulda, Coulda

Petra

by Bob Hartman and Greg Bailey

Based on Phil 3:13-14 Life is filled with many chances

Some you took, and you some you blew

Your path in life can turn ever so quickly

On everthing you say

And change with everything you do I know that was then

There's nothing I can do about what might have been (Chorus)

Would'a, should'a, could'a done this and that

Don't wanna live life with another regret

Would'a, should'a, could'a made another choice

I can see more the older I get

Would'a, should'a, could'a said something more

But it's too late - there's a knock at the door

Would'a, should'a, could'a won't change a thing

The here and now is waiting Would'a, should'a, could'a right now We dig our pit, we make our bed

That's where we fall and where we lay

But we still have a shot to make things better

'Cause it ain't over yet

And we can get it right today

We can make the right choice

You know it's easy when you hear God's voice (Chorus) I want to live my life not only thinking of the past

The future tells me that my life has not been cast

I want to say "I will, I did" instead of could or should

Gonna believe in the promise "It's all good" (Chorus)
