

Insanitys Mind

Jag Panzer

[Broderick / Conklin]In my mind I see the terrible deeds we've done

Convincing of the loved MacBeth to gain the crown

All I wanted was to taste of royal blood

Beholding things of kings has me drowning in a flood of treacheryAll I see is red. Staining things once pure

All I see is red. Cannot wash the stainsAll I want in life is to wear regal robes and dance upon the courts of kings for a while

Cannot erase this guilt contained within my mind.

Demands a heavy price.

I pay it with my lifeAll I see is red. Staining things once pure

All I see is red. Cannot wash the stainsI welcome death, and the final rest it brings.

Peaceful sleep. Peaceful sleep!I welcome death, and the final rest it brings.

Peaceful sleep. Peaceful sleep!All I see is red. Staining things once pure

All I see is red. Cannot wash the stainsAll I see is red. Staining things once pure

All I see is red. Cannot wash the stainsGoodbye, MacBeth, goodnight, my sweet

The dagger's pierce brings needed peace
