

Like a Fool

Oslo Swan

Like a fool
I dreamt you chased down the car
Waving a sign that made no sense
I drifted in and out
I read the sign out loud

Like a fool
I held the letter stuck
On the end
Of a stick over the pool
And you dove in after trusting me
Trusting me

Like a fool
Driveway to driveway
I still have briars in my clothes
Did I lay you down in those?
The names on the stones were all erased
And I thought it was you that I had chased

Driveway to driveway drunk
I don't remember this too well
Glad I have the scrapes to prove
Prove it was me who fell
And the names were all we knew
And the names were all erased

From stage to stage we flew
A drink in every hand
My hand on your heart had been replaced
And I thought it was you that I had chased
