Locust

Machine Head - (Unto The Locust)

Don't be afraid, it's a harmless moon
All we can do is to assume
Our lives must change, a change is due
I hear you say, "What are we gonna do?"
Oh weeping night, oh grieving sky
Oh rabbit wind, you just flew by
Grant me this, some small reward
Don't announce time of the final call
My dream was this, across the sky
A slate-gray cloud that filled the eye
A slate-gray cloud
Comes through the dust, locust
Don't be afraid, it's a harmless moon
