Fight The Feeling

Luis Fonsi

A sucker for your loving, a sucker for your kissing It's like a heatwave in July, every time we're eye to eye A sucker for your rubbing, sucker for your twisting

You take me to the danger zone but leave me shaking to the boneSweet like honey, banging like a bomb Turning me on, you're turning me on, you're turning me onCan I have it? Can I touch it?

Now, you really gotta let it show

'Cause I feel like I'm about to blow

When you act like that I can't fight the feelingGrab it? Can I love it?

Now, you really gotta let me know

'Cause I don't know how to take it slow

When you act like that I can't fight the feelingA sucker for your touching, a sucker for your teasing But I'm not out to sneak a feel, I wanna get to freak for real

A sucker for your hugging, a sucker for your squeezing

I bet you feel it all inside, so, let me know I'm qualifiedSweet like honey, banging like a bomb Turning me on, you're turning me on, you're turning me onCan I have it? Can I touch it?

Now, you really gotta let it show

'Cause I feel like I'm about to blow

When you act like that I can't fight the feelingGrab it? Can I love it?

Now, you really gotta let me know

'Cause I don't know how to take it slow

When you act like that, I can't fight the feelingBaby, I'm excited, gotta have it

I can't deny it, gotta have it

I don't know how to fight it, gotta have it

Turning me on, you're turning me onLove the way you flaunt it, gotta have it

Girl, I really want it, gotta have it

'Cause you're turning me on

You're turning me on, you're turning me on
