Nice House

Joywave

There's a strange grown man in a creepy coat
In the bathroom mirror
He knocked me down to the floor
I don't know him
I don't know him

There's an aging man with a narrow face
He's been following me around for days
I don't know him
I don't know him

My pulse kept beating (I was on standby)
While the days repeated (I was on standby) [x2]

I thought I'd have a nice house
To blow my brains out
Or a fast car to run from danger
My own place where I could get away

There's a strange grown man with a few gray hairs
In my own twin bed
I don't think he belongs there (No I don't)

My pulse kept beating (I was on standby)
While the days repeated (I was on standby) [x2]

I thought I'd have a nice house
To blow my brains out
Or a fast car to run from danger
My own place where I could get away

I thought I'd have a good wife
To kiss me good night
Or a fast car to run from danger
My own place where I could get away

Hey now, we run away now
But we can't escape now [x2]

I thought I'd have a nice house

To blow my brains out
Or a fast car to run from danger
My own place where I could get away

I thought I'd have a good wife
To kiss me good night
Or a fast car to run from danger
My own place
To run from danger
My own place
To run from danger
My own place
