Jumanji

Matt Bennett

Somethings stampeding over me, looks like its stampeding all over town
Since the new kids moved intro my house things havent been the same around
Did somebody roll a five or an eight? How the hell did I get here anyway?
Wheres mom and dad? Are you my brother and sister?
The fun is over now you know that I miss her. Ooh.

What year is it? No, what year am I?
Finally grew a beard but have no reason to be alive
My psychotic, neurotic high school sweetheart
Stand back I got this. The fireplace is bats and giant mosquitos
But where the lion went is something only she knows
Wheres mom and dad? Are you my brother and sister? (Aaaah)
The passions over now you know that I miss her. (Aaaah) Ooh.

We're out of the jungle but we're not out of a jungle yet cuz
Life is so strange on the outside
Take me back, oh, take me back
Monkey in the 'frigerator how did you get to be so cold? Dont you know?
After the game is over youre going home, youre going home

In terms of love and danger, be careful where you stand
The heart is many a tricky thing and the floor is quicker than the sand
You've gotta keep playing the game or that little monkey boy will keep fading away
Wheres mom and dad? Are you my brother and sister? (Aaaah)
The love is over now you know that I miss her. Ooh.

We're out of the jungle but we're not out of a jungle yet cuz
Life is so strange on the outside
Take me back, oh, take me back
Monkey in the 'frigerator how did you get to be so cold? Dont you know?
After the game is over youre going home, youre going home

We're out of the jungle but we're not out of a jungle yet cuz
Life is so strange on the outside
Take me back, oh, take me back
David Allen Grier, answer me this! How did you get to be so cold?
You used to live in color now youre growing old. You're growing old.
David Allen Grier, David Allen Grier, David Allen Grieeeeeeerrrrrrr

Lyrics Submitted by tierrabcaldwell on instagram!

Lyrics provided by
https://damnlyrics.com/