Pointless Nostalgic

Jamie Cullum

Ain't thinking 'bout love today
Lost in the sunlight
Walking down memory lane
Ain't thinking 'bout you today
People from the past that I knew

Are slowly slipping awaySeems so long ago Since we were carefreePhotographs lost in time are all I see

A pointless nostalgic

That's me, that's meThoughts running round my head today

Times from the past popping up

Where they're from I don't know

Reminiscing my cares away

Wishing I could go back and change

The points that were low

Till I've realized what life's meant to bePhotographs lost in time are all I see

A pointless nostalgic

That's me, that's meReminiscing my cares away

Wishing I could go back and change

The points that were low

Till I've realized what life's meant to be Photographs lost in time are all I see

A pointless nostalgic

That's me, that's meIt's all I'll ever be

It's all I'll ever be

'Cause that's me

It's all I'll ever be

'Cause that's me
