Evil Warriors

Possessed

Music : MT Lyrics : JB
Solo : MT
When you wake up in the night
And you stare into the dark
Your eyes will scream for sight
Evil left its mark
You'll be looking all above Looking all around
But if you want to see them you have to look down Tortured by thoughts stricken with fear blasted to hell
the end is near
As you wait upon your fate your throat is full of pain and when you try to scream
You know it's all in vain
Nothing you can change Destiny is complete silence seems so strange
As you start to feel the heat Forever to burn infinite pain demons of darkness warriors domain
Solo : LL
You think you're so secure
Gaze into the hell fire
I know you'll fall in love They'll hunt you down at night
Your Flesh is what they want
Your eyes will scream for sight
When Evil comes to haunt Cursed by nightmares
When you sleep
They'll cut your throat
And blood will seep

Fighting through the mist forever trapped in hell crushed with satan's fist
You can't escape his spell Sanity will pass Reality is just a word evil does its task
with its mighty sword Open your eyes and die by the hand of mass escape and you'll defy my long awaited grasp Solo : MT Solo : LL Solo : MT
They want to steal your soul
Death will steal away
Your wrongs will take their toll Below the crust you'll lay Spell has cast no hope forgotten thoughts of good Your neck awaits a rope And things go like they should Enslaved in forever torment blood drips from your eyes There is no way to repent from your wicked lies Blades of metal
Cut off your head
Served as a meal
Satan is fed
Masters of evil
Blasters of hell
no one can stop them we're under their spell Red eyes are glowing With you in sight
And if your knowing Scream out in fright
