

The Bluff

Wiz Khalifa

I got so much
I got so much
I got so much
I got so much
Oh, still the same nigga
Still walking all upon your all airplane with all my gang members
Selling like, money and champagne
Part of my campaign
I'm f*cking rich my nigga
Some things I can't change
Sometimes I swear I be so fly I mean I can't change
Sometimes I feel I've got a couple people I can't shame
Still rolling weed in a pair of Js
Gettin' ashes all over my favorite jeans
I ain't mad my nigga
I am getting paid crib with the maid
It's all the same shit, different day
Keep hearing 'bout what these niggas doin'
But them niggas gone, and I'm here to stay
(I'm here to stay)
Chorus:
I got me a whole world
So I probably roll one
As soon as you jump in the back with me
Like you get lifted, and you feelin' different
As soon as you want you can drive your seat
I got so much
(yeah, yeah)
I got so much

(yeah, yeah)
I got so much
I got so much
Cam'ron:
I told her leaving God?
But she can stay and breath
She looked and said, Cam you don't know what to say to me
Oh really? Paparazzi oh baby girl, no playing please
Now point that camera at my pockets cause they saying 'cheese?

Put up y'all like we gambling, next time we out here scrambling
I'm Killah, he Wiz, but all our checks are Cam'ron
Next chapter, next chapter, f-f-f-f-ties and Cannons (?)
Fresh rapper, fresh rapper right here where I'm standing
You play? We playin?
Drop by on the way that waving
New five, that's how we playin?
We have wave, I'm just saying
What you sayin'? What I'm sayin?
Money holds clothes and mayhem
Amen! Please have her on her knees, and shake cool

Chorus:

I'm shovin' forward, so I proudly ?
As soon as you jum' in the back with me
Like you can lift it, and you feelin' different
As soon as you want you can drive your seat

I got so much
Yeah, yeah
I got so much
Yeah, yeah
I got so much
